

International (Junior) Account Manager 24-40 hours

About us

Inter-Supply B.V. is an international wholesale company that mainly focuses on the export of medicines and medical devices. We deliver all over the world highly quality products and services to humanitarian partners and projects in conflict and disaster areas. We work together with NGOs, governments and private companies. Together with our customers we look for solutions to their projects and logistical processes.

Who are we looking for?

As a (Junior) Account Manager, your work mainly consists of building and maintaining relationships with existing customers and suppliers, as well as recruiting new customers and projects. You build up knowledge and experience in commercial international trade. Part of the position is visiting trade fairs and customers.

Some of your tasks are: making quotes, handling orders, monitoring logistics processes and preparing documentation. You approach customers proactively and build a sustainable relationship. You work independently, but also closely with colleagues from different departments.

We believe that communication, collaboration and an open and eager to learn attitude are important.

What do we ask of you?

- Minimum HBO working and thinking level;
- You are customer-oriented, proactive and responsible;
- You have commercial and strong communication skills;
- At least 2 years of experience in a commercial and international (sales) position;
- Experience with project management;
- Good command of the Dutch and English language, spoken and written, another language is an advantage;
- Living at a maximum of 40 km from the office (Dronten).

What do we offer you?

- An annual contract with the prospect of permanent contract;
- A small and motivated team;
- A positive and informal working atmosphere;
- An independent position with room for growth and development within a fast-growing company;
- Regularly have lunch or drinks together somewhere;
- Company laptop and telephone;
- Salary in accordance with the position and experience.

Interested?

Send a short motivation letter and your C.V. to info@inter-supply.nl stating Elka Meijer. For more information, please contact via telephone number 085 0230 400 or by email info@inter-supply.nl.